Artist Information

Scott Brown is a multitalented, versatile, artist from Hutchinson, Kansas, and a former art instructor at Hutchinson Community College. He and his wife, Michele, founded Big Nasty Press over a decade ago. Through that group, they have organized an annual print portfolio with other regional artists.

They currently operate Arkanoë, a kayak, canoe, and tube rental and shuttle service serving the Arkansas River in Reno County, Kansas.

In the current exhibition, Brown is showing mobiles made from reclaimed prints along with a variety of framed collage/mixed-media works.
